STUDENT LIFE

Witches come alive in "The Crucible"

Reinacting history was the main theme behind the 1971 Senior Class Play, "The Crucible." The excitement of actually doing a play that happened, showing the feelings and emotions that have been buried for over 300 years, was only part of the challenge the cast members had to meet.

"The Crucible", different from the previous senior plays, was a deep emotional drama based on the witch trials near Boston in the 1640's. The play met with great controversy from the school and audience as being hard to understand and imagine. But each member of the cast and those who attended has received a brief feeling of fear and doubt, dug from the past Salem witches, burned and buried.

Below: "My face, my face?" screams Abigail Williams. Lauren Strotz supposedly sees a bird.

Below: Betty, whose soul has been overcome by the devil, cries out in delirium, "I can fly, I can Fly!"

Record turnout enjoys Wilson's "Music Man"

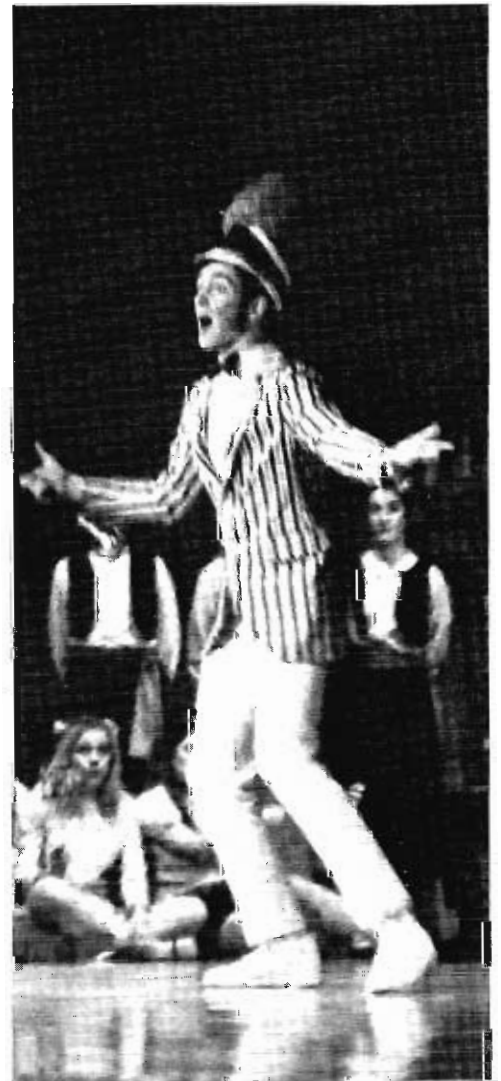

"What this town needs is a boys' band!" And so started Harold Hill's swindling pitch to the citizens of River City. Meredith Wilson's "Music Man", was presented by the Fine Arts Department as its spring musical.

Mark Bloomquist earned the honor of portraying Harold Hill, the "Music Man". Robbie Grissom played the roll of Marian Paroo, the librarian who finally changes Harold's purpose in life. Other major roles were Mayor Shinn portrayed by Bob Aspy, and his wife Eulalie McKeknie Shinn played by Judy Meyer. Dancers, townspeople and children were portrayed by scores of other students.

The combined efforts of the directors, cast, stage crew, and orchestra can be attributed to the immediate success of "Music Man". For the first time in the history of Snider, the play was put on an extra night so more people could have the opportunity to see it. The cast performed to sell out crowds for four consecutive nights.

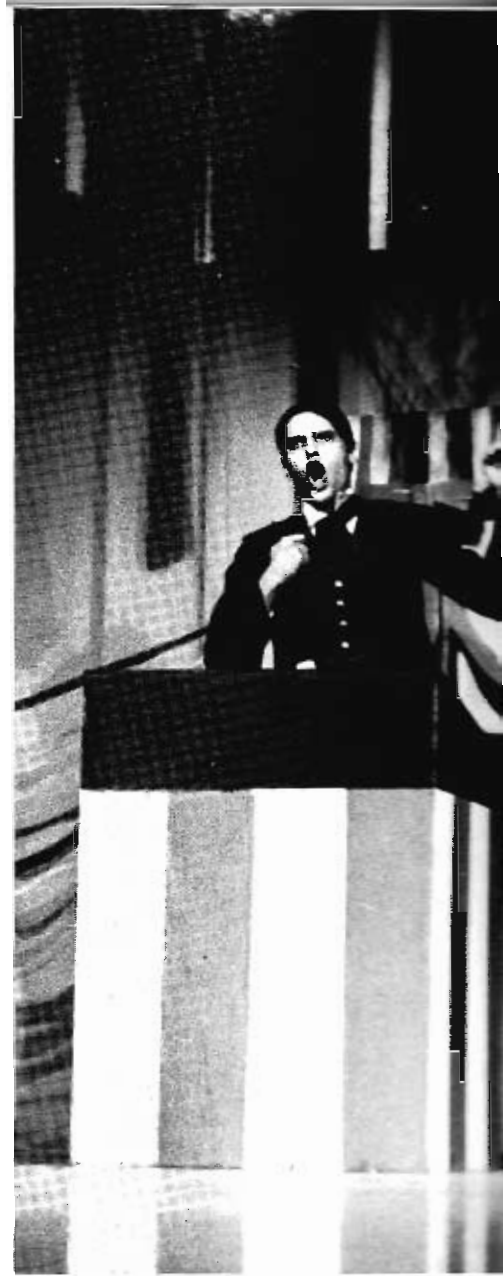

*Below: River City citizens anticipate the arrival of the Wells Fargo Wagon and speculate on what is being delivered.

Above: Two little boys torment the members of the "Del Sarte", more commonly known as the Grecian Urn ladies.

Below: Harold Hill and Marian Paroo realize that "Till There Was You," there was nothing.

Above: Mayor Shinn, Bob Aspy, pompous as ever, leads the Fourth of July celebration in the school gym.

Below: Tim Blaylock, who provided the entertainment during the social hour, enjoys his dinner along with the students.

Snider has its first combined Junior-Senior Prom

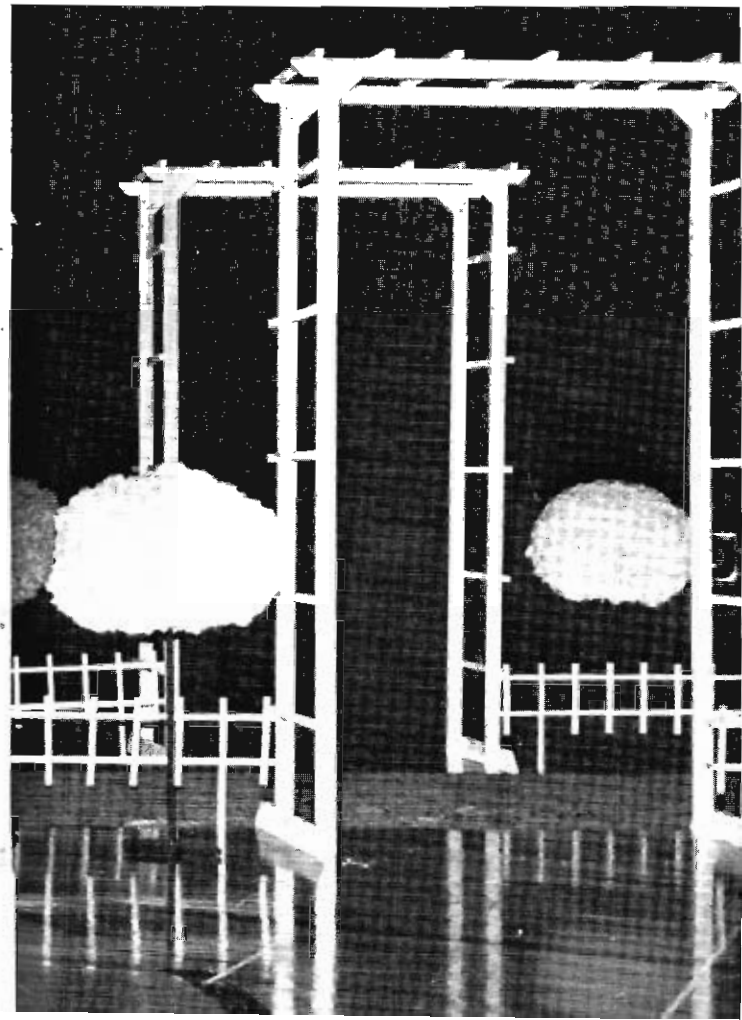

Top Left: The stone pathway to the beginning greeted each couple who passed over the entrance bridge. Top Right: The carousel was the center of attraction at the prom. Its mobility helped to set the mood suggested by the theme. Below: Couples entering the ballroom view the carousel before going off to socialize with other classmates.

“Sketchbook” cast takes trip on Lucky Duck Airlines

Right: Snider's Barbershop Quartet sang "My Blue Heaven" during the annual school talent show. Below: "The Music Bach II" performed "25 or 6 to 4" while Debby Zimmerman and Nancy Colby did a modern dance routine.

Harriers place third in State meet

A third place State finish capped off the most successful season ever for Coach Ron Wichern's cross country men. The high State rating followed a champion sweep at sectional and regional levels. In total, varsity runners churned out a 27—0 season mark while their City record came out at 9—0. Reserve harriers matched the efforts of their varsity counterparts by returning an 18—1 record. Their only loss was to South Side.

At the State meet, held at Indianapolis's South Grove course, a squad composed of seniors Mike Cleary, Pat Cleary, Dave Ford, Tony Deutsch, junior John Hartman, and sophomores Randy Allen and Rick Magley paced to 141 for their third placing. Mike Cleary was first for Snider and ninth in the meet. Following him consecutively for Snider were Hartman-31, Allen-32, P. Cleary-34, Magley-35, and Ford-38.

One record went by the wayside as Mike Cleary broke Snider's Shoaff Park record of 9:52 previously held by Jed Olvey in 1968. Mike ran 9:50 against Elmhurst.

The following is a listing of finishes at sectional and regional levels. Sectional—M. Cleary-3, Magley-4, Allen-7, Hartman-8, P. Cleary-10, and Deutsch-16. Regional—Allen-11, M. Cleary-12, Hartman-18, P. Cleary-21, Magley-29, and Deutsch-57. A low score of 32 points resulted in the sectional while the regional win totaled 81 points.

Best times of the '70 season follow: Mike Cleary-9:50; John Hartman-9:55; Randy Allen-9:56; Rick Magley-9:56; Pat Cleary-9:59; Tony Deutsch-10:0; Dave Ford-10:05; Doug Vining-10:06; Bob Marks-10:15; Al Linkous-10:20.

Team nets best record ever

The 1970 R. Nelson Snider tennis team compiled the best record in the history of that sport at the school. A total of 8 wins and 3 losses was tallied. Seniors Bill Strayer and Tom White won their sectionals double match which was followed by a regional third placing. Both players were undefeated in doubles matches during the season.

In their sectional doubles matches Strayer and White beat out players from South Side, Concordia, and East Noble. In the regional they lost out to a Peru combination after defeating Plymouth.

Most decisive victories were scored off of Manchester, Bishop Luers, and Homestead Highs. Each of those meets resulted in an opponent shut-out.

Earning letters for season play were seniors Dan Higgins, Doug Moeller, Greg Postel, Bill Strayer, and Tom White and junior Randy Moeller.

Grid men bag 5—2—2 record

The 1970 varsity football team concluded its season with a 5—2—2 mark and a third place City ranking. Reserve players played to a 3—2—1 record. Toughest games came on the road in confrontations with North Central High and a home meeting with the Central Tigers, later named City champs for the year. Most decisive wins were scored against New Haven and North Side.

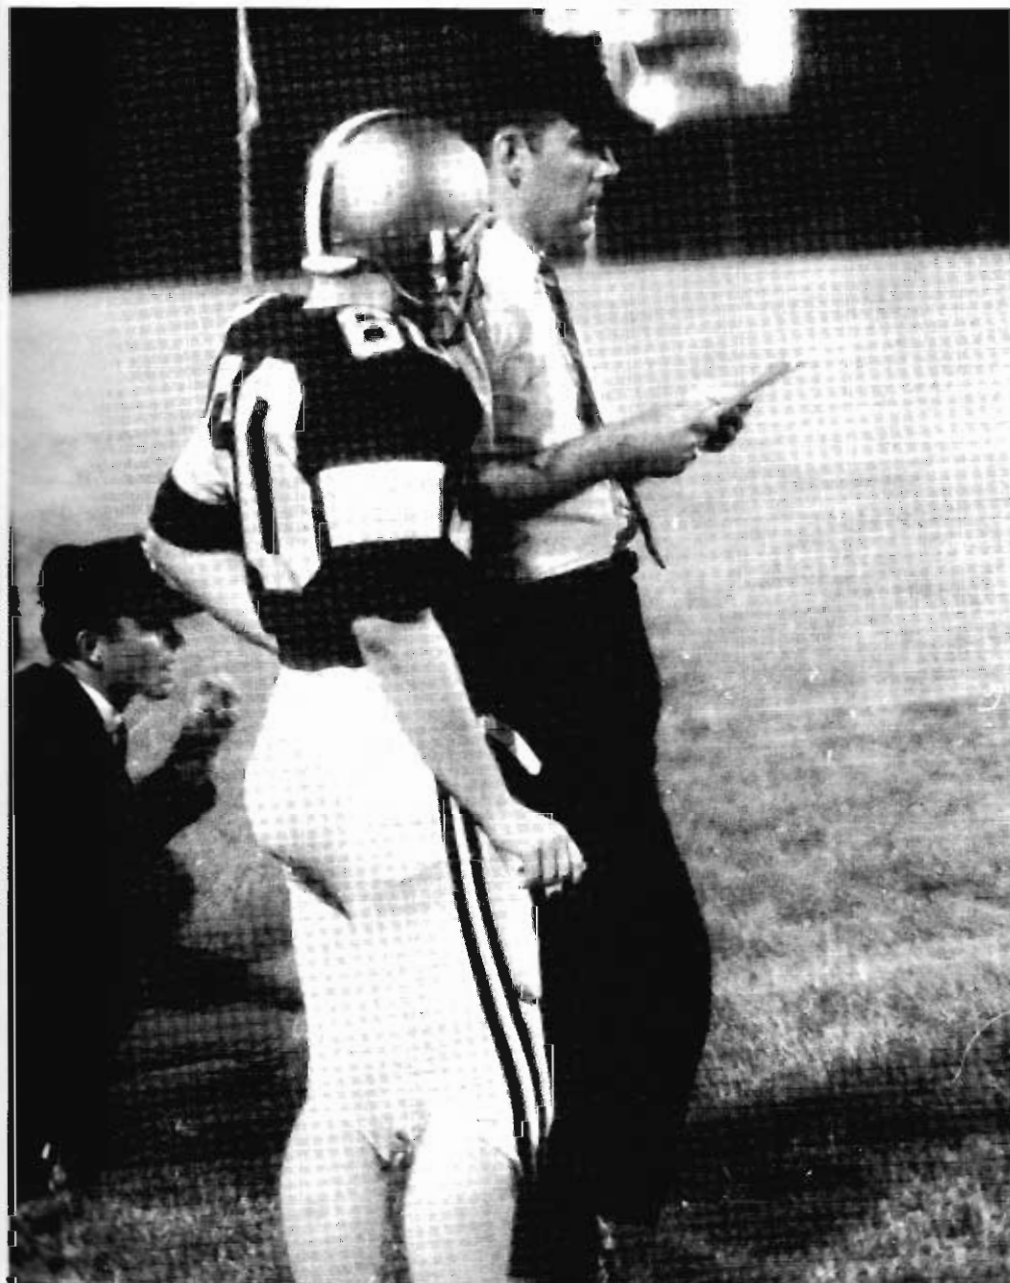

Offensively, the Panthers employed a Wishbone T, Texas Offense, and Sprint Pass to gain a total of 105 first downs, 1511

The Panther swim team completed another winning season this campaign while under the hardship of limited early morning practices. Although the season record was not as good as in previous seasons, several school records were ellipsed. The Medley Relay team broke the 200 Medley Relay sectional record with a time of 1:43.9 on the way to a sectional championship and a trip to the State finals. Seniors Tom Hutchinson and Bill Jeppson, junior Larry Lindholm, and sophomore

Rick Kirke composed the record breaking quartet.

Rick Kirke took possession of two school records in his first year of varsity swimming. Rick did the 50 Freestyle in 23.2 and the 60 Freestyle in a time of 29.0 while also being the leading scorer on the team.

Another junior, Larry Lindholm broke the school mark in the 100 Breaststroke with a time of 1:08.7 while his classmate Mike Knake swam to four school standards.

Wrestlers return winning season

Under the strain of a building type season, the 1970-71 varsity wrestling team turned out a successful 9—2 season which was highlighted by a championship placing in the Columbus Tourney and a second placing in the Concordia Tourney. One wrestler, Mike McBride stood out as a Sectional champion in the 112-weight class.

Of the 90 boys who went out for the sport, 45 became part of the team. Outstanding individual records came from seniors Bill Green, (17—2); Cal Roe, (16—5); Mark Malmstrom, (12—6); junior Mike McBride, (15—5); and sophomore Joe Gabriel, (14—4).

Tourney champions are as follows—Bill Green (105 lbs.) at Columbus and Concordia Invitationals; Mike McBride (112) at Concordia; Cal Roe (126) at Columbus; Joe Gabriel(119) at Concordia.

Total senior three year varsity records are as follows: B. Green (39—4—1), M. Malmstrom (24—10), C. Roe (17—5), T. Bauerle (14—7), S. White (2—4), J. Bloomaker (2—5—1), D. Hammer (1—4), J. Horstman (0—0), B. Anderson (0—0).

A surprising 66—65 upset delivered by Leo's Lions culminated a 15—6 season and second place City ranking for Snider's varsity basketball team. Panther reserves ended at a 17—3 spot and the C-team at 4—5.

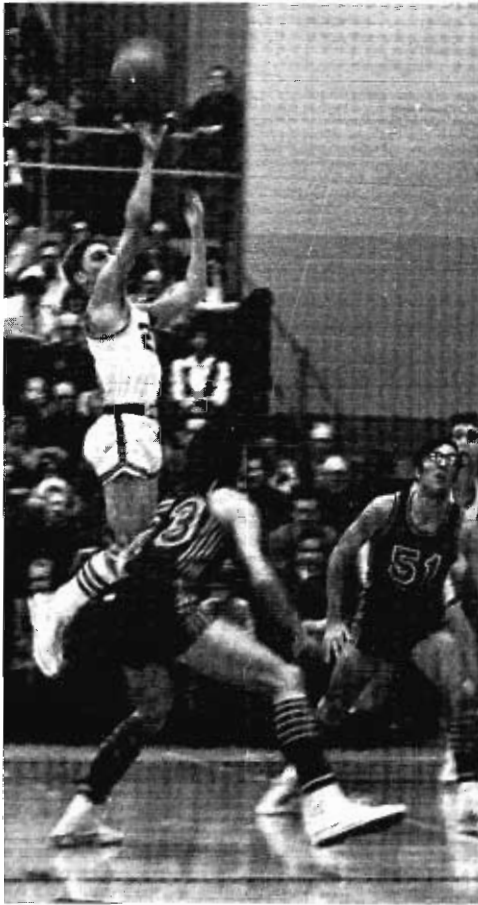

Coach Roy Kline and assistants Murray Mendenhall and Max Egley were able to bring the '71 team around by mid-season so that out of the concluding ten season games, the team suffered only one loss. The team's largest margined wins came off of two teams, South Bend Jackson and Garrett, at 25 points.

Panther guard Murray Mendenhall was voted an All-City player for the 1970-71 season. Mendenhall led the team in total points with 297 as well as free throw points at 103. He started as the guard position.

Starting in the majority of games were seniors Murray Mendenhall, Jon Williams, Don Rhineholz, Don Chaney, and Doug Armstrong. Ten seniors and two juniors built up the squad.

Dan Ruble guides seniors through final year

The senior class officers for the 1970-71 school year are Dan Ruble, President; Bill Wade, Vice-president; Pam Collins, Secretary; and Christy Whearley, Treasurer.

The Class of 1971—Snider's largest graduating class so far—contributed much time and effort to a record number of projects. Among these activities which the seniors provided the leadership for was an expanded Christmas project at the State School. They planned Yuletide parties with holiday gifts distributed to the patients by student Santa Clauses.

The seniors also headed most of the student committees which "took over" school operations during Concern Week—the five-day experiment in free-form education. Headed by Student Council vice-president Dennis Hall and his executive committee, the seniors did a large share of organizing this educational innovation.

Also, with their criticisms of old practices and suggestions for new ones, seniors were often instrumental in bringing about a change in school policy. Due to a council-originated movement, for example, student organizations were allowed to employ union bands for school dances, and, with the efforts of the senior class officers and faculty representatives, a new system of final testing was devised this year.

But the Class of '71 was not only hard-working; it was talented, too. In this year's senior drama, entitled The Crucible, an all-star cast of seniors, headed by Dan Ruble, Bill Cearbaugh, Janet Thorington, Lauren Strotz, and Robin Grissom, portrayed the characters in a town (Salem, Massachusetts) torn by false accusations of witchcraft. In The Music Man, seniors Robin Grissom, Mark Bloomquist, and Dan Ruble played the comical-musical leads.

Highlighting the spring for many seniors were the annual Senior Banquet and the Junior-Senior Prom. Combining the two individual class dances into one extravaganza was another first—a controversial one, at that—for Snider. Surrounded by a motif centering on the theme "We've Only Just Begun," under and upperclassmen danced to the music of Mr. Richard Seeger's orchestra.

Winding up the final week of school for seniors was the awards assembly. At that time, the seniors presented their gift to the school—money with which to purchase speakers for the auditorium—and four students were recognized for citizenship. While Linda Stedman and Joe Dye claimed the "I Dare You" awards, Kay Kinney and Mike Sidebottom walked away with the DAR and Kiwanis honors. And, for the first time in Snider's history, the valedictorian honors were shared—by Lauren Strotz and Janet Thorington. Along with salutatorian Ellen Seddon and the 36 seniors whose gowns were adorned with gold honor cords, Lauren and Janet led the seniors in their final convocation—the Commencement at the Coliseum.

Here, Marti Martindale was caught in one of her more creative moods as she practices her guitar "homework" for one of her Concern Week classes.

Giauque heads junior class

Last September, a group of confused ex-sophomores entered Snider to begin a new year as confused juniors. The feelings of confusion and insecurity created by themes and chemistry problems eased when the juniors played debonair hosts to the sophomores during the Sophomore Mixer.

Shortly after returning from the Washington Trip and with term papers done, the Juniors were given a breakfast by the Sophomore class.

After proving themselves such capable party-givers at the Sophomore Mixer, the Juniors were given the responsibility of hosting the Junior-Senior Prom, "We've Only Just Begun". The prom had a good turnout which again showed that the juniors know how to give a party.

The juniors set further good examples during the year by winning the Spirit Stick several times.

With all of these things behind them, the Juniors have made it through another tough year. Some will return here next year and others will go to Northrup to finish their high school learning.

Below: Each year Snider High School students go to the State Hospital and give parties for the patients there. This picture shows some of the Juniors who helped.

Dan Butler leads Sophomore Class as President

The largest class yet to enter the halls of Snider was the incoming sophomore class of '73. They showed their excitement and enthusiasm for their school by participating in the pep assemblies.

In the fall, the annual sophomore trip to Chicago highlighted fun and excitement. World History students went for a full day of visiting different sights throughout the city.

"Incense and Peppermint" was the theme of the annual sophomore class party. The party went into a full swing with the entertainment provided by the 'Lucy Gray' band.

Much appreciation was expressed by the sophomores at the annual Junior Breakfast. The sophomores served the juniors before school on April 29. President Dan Butler gave grace before the juniors started eating their meal consisting of donuts, milk, and juice.

Sophomores found gym class rewarding in many respects. Many activities that were undertaken were golf, boxing, bowling, tennis, badminton, baseball and track.

The class officers elected by the sophomores in the early fall were Dan Butler, president; Richard Porter, vice-president; Denise Moore, secretary; and Dawn Postel, treasurer. These officers served for the entire school year. The class sponsors are, Mrs. Helen Edwards and Mr. Al Hemmer.

Top: The business hall became patriotic with its display of the American flag on the bulletin board. Right: All students who attended school a full day were required to eat lunch in the cafeteria. Lower Left: A policeman watches a ballgame while on duty at the school. Lower Right: Ginger West and Scott Motes sit at a table waiting to help schedule students for concern week.

“Concern Week” revives interests of students

When you're alone, a wait can be very boring. Above: Waiting for classes to begin, students gather at the end of

As June rolls around, the school ground empties and only a few people remain to put the finishing touches on the year.

As the last pages of the '71 SAFARI go off to press, memories of all the year's events come to mind. In spite of rushing to meet each coming deadline, the 1971 SAFARI finally made it. Between these pages lie so many moments of despair and satisfaction, that the SAFARI has become a record of memories of the students and faculty. New ideas, hard work, and a dedicated staff contributed to the personality of this yearbook.

The 1971 SAFARI is not complete until the staff expresses its appreciative thanks to those who helped us. I wish to thank Mr. Jim Arthur, our consultant from the American Yearbook Company, who helped the book through many rough spots. Thanks also goes to Watters Studio for taking our senior pictures and to Roberts Studio for the underclass photos. Fellow students, Linda Nelson, for her division pages, and Terry Flynn for his superb photography and the design of our cover, deserve a special recognition. Our deep gratitude goes out to Mrs. Mary Cunningham, our advisor, who put up with our many mistakes, our bad moods, and constant confusion.
